edition of P.N. 85, and they listened and watched in a state of bliss -- they were very impressed, and am, by the technology behind the copy; they were also delighted, and am, that all the family history (Briswell/Curtin/Loomis and all the Clinton Center Pioneer Day & Briswell Reunion material) is preserved. at about 10 P.M. we took our leave. What a pleasant experience & what an unexpected pleasure. When E.A.G. went down to Danville, I thought that that would be the last time we would ever see E.A.G. at 80 Cemetery Street -- happily, I was wrong. They are going to attend the Reunion & will return to Carbonale on 8/21/85 -- Both of them were very complimentary to me about Volume I, Number 1 of the C.C.P.O.D.R. Newsletter. We asked if we can use the Harriet Center Garden hand-painted bowl to take the collection in at the S.R. again this year, and we were, of course, enthusiastically given permission to do so.

Dropped off DWP at the Grief Course and returned here where I re-grouped and then went to bed -- my new loft bed is truly wonderful. Continued my reading of <sup>Volume I</sup> Carl Sandburg's Abraham Lincoln: The Prairie Years, 1809-1861, The War Years, 1861-1865; began reading these wonderful books on 07-31-1985. Skip Pace, of all people, lent them to me.

In late June, I typed
a newsletter for Public for the Ministers'
Council -- they insist
on paying me $10,
even though I told
Public that I did not want any money
for having typed the Newsletter.
